

Cornerstone [Lyrics]

[Drew Hodge, Matt Jones] by Drew Hodge, Matt Jones

Verse 1

Let me stand upon the Rock, break my will and sin;
Spare me from His crushing blow now dealt to death, wherein Trembling, I declare the Name of the One who came to save

Chorus

Broken I fall helplessly on the one who died for me
He was crushed so I could be freed from sin eternally
Rejected and afflicted, He took my place, His enemy
Now he stands victoriously my cornerstone my surety

Verse 2

Let me look upon the Son despised by those he loved
Cast out, He was crucified I shed His perfect blood
Guilty, my hands were stained, washed by a holy flood.

Verse 3

Let me bow before the throne, kiss my saviors feet
Witness my eternal home, sing with the redeemed
Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive forever praise
