"Finding God's Comfort for My Fearful Soul"

Peace and rest are great concepts in the abstract, but if we are honest, most women do not experience much peace in their day-to-day lives. We are often rushed, stressed and anxious. God truly invites you to cast all your anxieties on Him.

About our speaker

Tara Klena Barthel

Tara earned her law degree and M.B.A. from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and her B.A. in psychology from Augustana College (Illinois). Before moving to Billings, Montana to work with Peacemaker Ministries she worked as an attorney and business consultant in Chicago. She has served as the Director of the Institute for Christian Conciliation, a division of Peacemaker Ministries. She now serves as an Adjunct Instructor and Certified Christian consultant to businesses and Christian ministries. Baker Book House Co. published her first book in 2005, Peacemaking Women—Biblical Hope for Resolving Conflict. Her first video series produced through Peacemaker Ministries in 2007 is titled "Living the Gospel in Relationships". Tara's husband Frederick and their two daughters Sophia and Ella are members of Rocky Mountain Community Church (PCA) where Fred serves as a deacon.
